WOMEN CAN/WOMEN DO 2025

event history

Women Can/Women Do is an annual fundraising event series that supports essential programs and services of the Women's Resource Center of Northern Michigan (WRCNM). Thousands of women, children, and families benefit from these vital and unique services every year.

Across venues in four counties, the Women Can/Women Do luncheons host approximately 1,000 women for enjoyable and meaningful events that feature a stunning array of unique table designs, a multi-course luncheon, socializing, and networking. In Charlevoix and Emmet counties, the event also features a fabulous silent auction. Partnerships with local businesses, organizations, and individuals help facilitate the beloved fundraiser each year.

when/where

Women Can/Women Do luncheons are held in four counties:

Charlevoix: June 11, 2025

Cheboygan: July 24, 2025

Otsego: August 5, 2025

Emmet: September 10, 2025

sponsorship benefits

Beyond being associated with an annual event that supports women, children and families in our community who are facing some of life's greatest obstacles, you will also be recognized based on your sponsorship level. Deadlines for submission vary based on the sponsorship level and corresponding marketing exposure.

Please know that your sponsorship helps support WRCNM programs and services that include comprehensive domestic abuse services, Safe Home emergency shelter, 24/7 help and information, in-person emergency response, therapeutic counseling, housing/financial/medical advocacy, comprehensive sexual assault services, transitional supportive housing, education and employment services, children's educational programs, violence prevention activities, and communitywide systems change.

Together with donors like you, we're empowering our community.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!
